

Psalms for every Season

“Seasons of Blessedness”

We all go through many different ‘seasons’ in life. Some are good and some are bad. The Psalms are filled with real life experiences that teach us what to do in every season of life. Today we begin a new series entitled Psalms for every Season and our first lesson is “Seasons of Blessedness” from Psalm 1

Keys to Living a Blessed Life

- Three things to Avoid – Psalm 1:1
- Two things to Pursue – Psalm 1:2; 119

The Benefits of a Blessed Life

- He is like ‘a tree planted by streams of water’ – Psalm 1:3a
- Which ‘yields its fruit in season’ – Psalm 1:3b
- Whose ‘leaf does not wither’ – Psalm 1:3c
- And ‘whatever he does prospers’ – Psalm 1:3d

The Destruction of a Wicked Life

- He is ‘like chaff that the wind blows away’ – Psalm 1:4
- He ‘will not stand in the judgment’ – Psalm 1:5a
- ‘Nor in the assembly of the righteous’ – Psalm 1:5b
